MOTION TO SET ASSIGNEE BOND

Mark C. Healy (the “Assignee”), by and through his undersigned attorney, hereby files this Motion to Set Assignee Bond and states:

BACKGROUND

1. On February 7, 2022, this Assignment for the Benefit of Creditors under Chapter 727 of the Florida Statutes was commenced following the assignment by Bookit Operating, L.L.C. (the “Assignor”) to the Assignee and the Assignee’s filing of a Petition with this Court.

2. The Assignor’s assets have been assigned to the Assignee and the Assignee has been conferred certain statutory duties and powers under Chapter 727.

RELIEF REQUESTED

3. Pursuant to Fla. Stat. § 727.104, the Assignee is required to obtain a bond made payable to the Clerk of the Court “in an amount not less than $25,000.00 or double the liquidation value of the unencumbered and liquid assets of the estate as set forth in Schedule B, whichever is higher, conditioned upon the assignee’s faithful discharge of her or his duties.” Fla. Stat.

§ 727.104(2)(b) (2020). The amount of the bond is “subject to reconsideration upon the motion of any party interest after notice and a hearing.” Id.

4. The liquid assets are approximately $15,000.00. Accordingly, the Assignee requests that the Court set the bond in the amount of $30,000.00 (the “Bond”), which is double the approximate liquidation value of the unencumbered liquid assets of the estate.

WHEREFORE the Assignee respectfully requests the Court grant this Motion, authorizing the Bond in the amount of $30,000.00, and provide such other relief as is just and proper.
